Carmel High School To Be Switched With Middle School

At a special meeting of the Carmel School Board Monday evening, Fred Keeble, architect with Keeble and Rhoda, presented feasibility plans for increasing the capacity of both the high school and the Middle School to an anticipated enrollment of 1500 students. The high school and Middle School both have enrollments of close to a thousand.

In his opinion the 20-acre site of the high school would be overcrowded by the addition of two-story buildings which would not look well beside the present buildings. These still would not take care of a new library to take the place of the present overcrowded one. There would also be a shortage of parking and playing fields.

One alternative discussed was to build another high school in the Valley. This would mean buying a site, and having two smaller high schools which would be economically unsound.

Since Middle School has a 53-acre level site, the board voted, for long range planning purposes, to switch the two schools. The High School will have plenty of room to expand there, and when the Middle School reaches a capacity of 1000 at the present high school site, another middle school can be built mid-Valley on the 22-acre Scarlett Road site that the district owns.

Keeble also presented plans for a three-room unit at Tularcitos elementary school. Since the school cannot be built in time to avoid bad overcrowding, the board is still wrestling with various alternatives.

CHS Presents Enter Laughing

The Carmel High School drama department under the direction of Nick Zanides will present to parents, students and theatregoers the highly entertaining "Enter Laughing."

Opening tomorrow evening at 8:30 and running through Saturday at the Sunset Theatre, "Enter Laughing' is a two act comedy about a young boy who wants to become an actor. Amusing conflicts occur with his parents because of their desire for David to become a druggist. Rebellion prevails and the boy takes a job as a delivery man to earn his way through a semi-professional drama school.

Garth Martin plays the leading character, David Kolowitz, and is supported by Jane Deuerman, Wayne Kendall, Pam Speckens, and Mark Lewis, to name a few.

Tickets may be bought at the high school or at the door at Sunset Theatre.

Attention Little Leaguers

Kids, if you missed the first Little League tryout last week, you still have a chance to make the others, scheduled for March 23 and 30.

Its a rule that any boy wishing to be eligible for the major league draft must make two of the three tryouts. So be certain that you make these last two if you missed the first.

Tryouts will be held at the Little League Field next to the Carmel Mission, and divided into three groups: Ages 11-12 will meet at 9 a.m. to 11 a.m.; age 10, between 11 a.m. and 1 p.m., and age 9 from 1 p.m. to 3 p.m.

Hester Hall Schoeninger Dies

Mrs. Hester Hall Schoeninger, 88, who organized the first Carmel Parent Teachers Association in 1926 because she thought the cultural life of the community failed to touch the students at Sunset School, died on Monday.

Along with six other determined women, they first bought a grand piano for the Sunset assembly room, then in the basement of Sunset. Then in cooperation with impresario Dene Denny and others, arranged for visiting and local artists to appear before the children on SPRING!

Permit the young their sympathy with Spring —
She comes with such a rush, and then she's there!
All decked with daring, with her leaves a-swing
And overlapping flowers in her hair.
Her beauty is not narrowed by a style;
What does she care how rigid was the bough —
She lights a blossom swiftly with a smile
Not for tomorrow. All she knows is NOW!

Spring is a spirit not akin to season,
She is the waking essence of delight;
You cannot tame her by the frown of reason —
Whatever she does is hers; and somehow right.
She has no adult notions and no fear —
So let us just enjoy her while she's here.

Dora Hagemeyer.

Restoration of Theatre in the Ground

For at least a dozen years the almost forgotten Theatre in the Ground has gone unused, except for occasional short run productions, storage of sets and props, and dressing rooms for the Forest Theatre summer presentation.

The doors had remained closed so long that the stale air almost gagged visitors.

But now, the doors are opened and the Theatre in the Ground has taken on a face lifting, with credit going to a young enthusiastic actor - director - instructor, Stephen Welles.

The walls have been given a fresh coat of paint; the ceiling has been repaired and painted, colorful carpet has been laid throughout the theatre; shelves have been erected to provide space for potters, sculptors and other creative artists to display their wares; the stage lighting has been greatly improved; the proscenium arch has been moved back and the apron moved forward to provide the needed additional backstage areas; the dressing rooms (with carpet) have been tailored to provide a pleasant place to make-up; and Stephen has ideas for ventilation, which has long been a problem in the Theatre in the Ground.

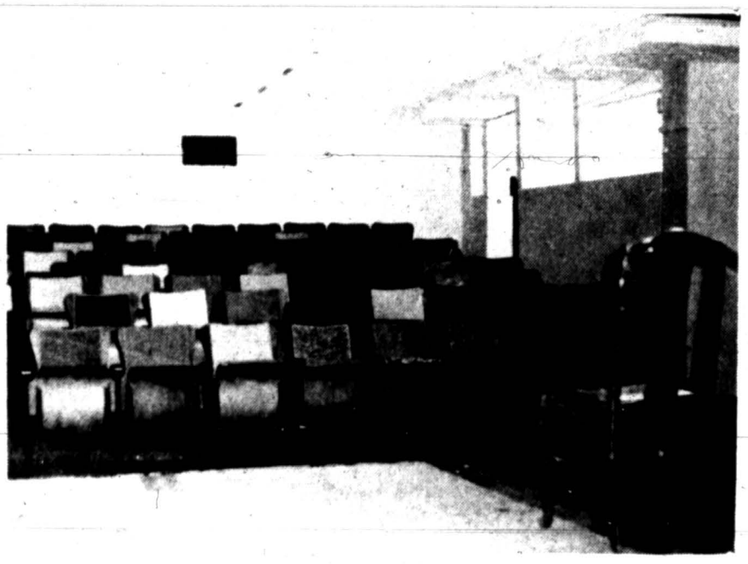

All of these improvements and additions have been done by this energetic actor, with assistance provided by his secretary Barbara Ruth and financier Frank Drowengen of San Francisco. Some of the tools and the materials were provided by the City, but the bulk of expense has been borne by this non-profit organization.

Since February 8, when Welles received the "go ahead" signal from the City Council, he and his small corps of workers (2 strong) have spent almost every waking hour making the Theatre in the Ground a pleasant place for Carmel theatregoers to enjoy the classics.

Called Welles Humanist Educational Theatre, the operation is designed to entertain and teach. Mr. Welles intends to gain an active workshop, teach diction, voice, and techniques in acting. His students will sometimes be taking more than one role in a single performance. He plans to produce classics by Ibsen, Shakespeare, Chekov, and others.

To introduce himself to the Peninsula and prospective students, Welles will perform alone on stage and offer excerpts from "Hamlet," "Othello," "Macbeth," "Julius Caesar," "Richard the II," and many others. His program will run through 26 performances each Thursday, Friday, Saturday, and Sunday evenings beginning tonight. Theatre in the Ground is located below the Forest Theatre stage.

This veteran actor said, "What we need more than anything, is community support."

Theatre in the Ground has a seating capacity of 65.

Theatre in the Ground is located directly below the Forest Theatre stage. The entrance faces the parking lot.

Welles carpeted, painted and hung drapes in the lobby of the Theatre in the Ground.

OBITUARIES

T. Jack Foster, 65, Pebble Beach resident for 10 years, died on Friday. He was known for his construction industry which created Foster City, a planned marina community near San Francisco, and many other projects. His sons, T. Jack Foster Jr., J. Robert, and Richard, all of Hillsborough, have been carrying on during his retirement.

He was a 45 year Mason, member of the Scottish and York Rites, the Shrine and Jesters. He was a director of the Monterey Peninsula Community Hospital.

He is also survived by his widow, Gladys, and nine grandchildren.

Theatre Review

GOOD TIMES . . . Sonny and Cher sing their way through an otherwise entertaining movie.

HAPPIEST MILLIONAIRE, lavish Disney musical starring Fred MacMurray and Greer Garson, Wommy Steele in tale about Anthony J. Drexel Biddle of Philadelphia. A bit sweet, colorful just the same.

FIVE MILLION YEARS TO EARTH . . . a British film more incredible than anything today's science or fiction ever imagined. In color.

VIKING QUEEN . . . Another British film portraying a female warrior bent to conquering a world of men. She was made to be Queen during the ancient days of English's battle against the viking invaders.

GUESS WHO'S COMING TO DINNER, Spencer Tracy in his final work and last teaming with Katherine Hepburn. Poitier's performance capped a remarkable year for him.

BONNIE AND CLYDE, dazzling slapstick style treatment of saga about robbing group in the Southwest of the 30's, leaves one entertained but not much wiser about them. Gore and sensualism intrude. But the cast is fine.

THOROUGHLY MODERN MILLIE, Carol Channing steals the show playing an eccentric wealthy widow, but also around to help in this comedy of the 1920's are Julie Andrews, who is delightful, James Fox, Bea Lillie and John Garvin. Some of the songs are from the period.

IN COLD BLOOD, gripping, authentic follow-up to Truman Capote's literate study of two killers who commit a senseless, multiple murder. Richard Brooks' direction draws the performance from newcomers, Robert Blake and Scott Wilson, and evocative detail from settings.

THE GRADUATE, interesting, if not completely compelling, comedy. Dustin Hoffman is excellent in the title role. Anne Bancroft is extremely good as the woman who seduces him and Katharine Ross is attractive as her daughter with whom Hoffman falls in love. The picture argues that all over 30 are dishonest, corrupt and unthinking.

LAST CHALLENGE . . . a tongue-in-cheek portrayal of a gun slinger who is determined to "shoot it out" with Glen Ford. Angie Dickinson plays the beautiful girl of Ford's. Really funny dialogue.

HOW TO SAVE A MARRIAGE AND RUIN YOUR LIFE . . . Typically Dean Martin situations, namely with girls. This time with Stella Stevens, who is provided an apartment . . . and Dean Martin.

INSIDE NORTH VIETNAM, produced by controversial figure Felix Greene, shows actual scenes shot inside North Vietnam. Included is an interview with a downed American pilot.

Recipe Swap at Highlands Inn

by PHYLLIS JERVEY
Pine Cone Party Editor

The Pacific Coast Food Editors met March 14th at the Highlands Inn to swap recipes and enjoy a marvelous dinner menu.

Can you imagine anything more tasty than the following menu.

After assorted hot and cold hors d'oeuvres, a delicate hot madrilene was followed by artichoke anchovy salad, truly a magic combination. The superb piece de resistance were tender tornedoes Bordelaise with light as air rice pilaf and tiny green peas. The dessert buffet was a magnificent sight with a step-by-step demonstration by the Inn's pastry chef of his many delectable pastries.

Carmel's own Kay Hillyard, whose imagination and executive ability coordinated the "Art in Action" seminar before dinner, is to be congradulated on the stunning show put on by six of our most expert artisans. These were Anne Blinks, famed weaver who told her impressed audience that "you just can't duplicate the fabrics used by early Anglo-Saxons (500 to 800 A.D.) if you use machine-spun dyed yarns," as she demonstrated her skill from the many sheep she raises herself on Jack's Peak. Other artists giving outstanding displays of their work were Rudolph Marzi, ceramist from Carmel Valley; Avis Ballard, enamel-on-metal expert; Robert Grabowski whose exquisite jade jewelry may be found in his Monterey Fisherman's Wharf studio; Nancy Johnson, watercolorist and art teacher of note; Karen Mignano with her "fresh-from-the garden" flower arrangements.

The next morning the eye-opener consisted of pineapple delight, silver dollar pancakes, Canadian bacon, miniature Danish pastries and coffee. At this gathering the food editors swapped favorite regional recipes. A tour of Carmel was climaxed at Pebble Beach Lodge. Guests were entranced by the striking panorama of Carmel Bay which most of us natives are apt to take for granted. The luncheon reflected the long tradition of hospitality and fine food that has made the Lodge one of the West's most prominent hotels since the 1890's. Making all of this gastronomic, scenic and artistic pleasure possible was the General Foods Kitchens of White Plains, N.Y. whose hostesses entertained with charming cordiality.

DRESSAGE LESSONS AT PEBBLE BEACH

Group and private dressage lessons will be given March 23, at 2:30 P.M., Miss Joy Fishbacher of New Canaan, Connecticut will hold a special discussion and lesson in dressage.

Miss Fischbacher, who is guest instructor at the Pebble Beach Equestrian Center, has been riding for 15 years, including two years with Richard Watjen of the Spanish Riding School in Vienna and trainer of the United States Equestrian Team. She continued her training in Paris with Rene Bacharach, graduate of Saumur, France, and follower of Nono Oliveira of the Portuguese School. The public is invited. Individual explanation and one free hour of instruction is available by appointment through Richard D. Collins or Miss Fischbacher at 624-2756.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE RADIO PROGRAM

This Sunday morning the title of the program on the Christian Science radio series "The Bible Speaks to You" will be "Overcoming That Trapped Feeling at Work." Practical answers will be offered for those whose fringe benefits or family responsibilities make them feel trapped in their jobs. It will be heard over stations KGO at 7:30; KRML at 7:45, and KDON at 8:45.

Masters Concert

The following major works will be featured on the Masters Concert during the week of March 21, over KMBY-FM (96.9 M.C.) at 8 p.m.:

Thursday, March 21: Horowitz at Carnegie Hall: Part Two, Various Things; Seven Studies on Themes on Paul Klee, Schuller.

Friday, March 22: Sinfonia Concertante, K 364, Mozart; Sonata No. 2 for Piano & Cello in G Minor, Opus 5, Beethoven.

Monday, March 25: Piano Concerto in G Major, Ravel; String Quartet No. 1 in C Minor, Brahms.

Tuesday, March 26: Symphony No. 40 in G Minor, k 550, Mozart; Concerto in F Major for 3 Pianos & Orchestra, k 242, Mozart.

Wednesday, March 26: The Nutcracker Suite, Opus 71A; Tchaikovsky; Cello Concerto in D, Haydn.

OBITUARIES

Mrs. Elizabeth S. Reed, 61, Carmel resident since 1955, died in a Palo Alto hospital, last week. Widow of the late Charles S. Reed who died in 1960, she was the daughter of Mrs. Elizabeth Shay Ricker of Carmel. She is also survived by a daughter, a son and six grandchildren. Mrs. Reed was a member of All Saints' Episcopal Church. Services were held in the Little Chapel-by-the-Sea with the Rev. David Hill officiating.

Reviews for Young Readers

By Allene Fremier

THE MAGIC MAKER, by Joyce Varney makes magic for the reader in a Welsh setting. It's about a boy who is always in trouble in school and who is helped by an American exchange teacher. At first Twm thinks the teacher must be a Teg, a Welsh witch who is said to have blond hair and who can fly. Since Miss Olson said herself that she flew over America, Twm is ready to have her teach him magic. When he discovers that she isn't a Teg, he begins to think that maybe education can replace witchcraft.

If you have been wondering how to eat a poem, we have the answer for you in a collection of food poems for children. HOW TO EAT A POEM AND OTHER MORSELS is selected by Rose Agree and has food words by David McCord, Carson McCullers, Rachel Field, Heinrich Hoffman, Maurice Sendak and many others. It ends with the following poem by Eve Merriam:

HOW TO EAT A POEM
"Don't be polite.
Bite in.
Pick it up with your fingers and lick the juice that may run down your chin.
It is ready and ripe now, whenever you are. . . ."

We have lots of new picture books this week. SEASHORE STORY, by Taro Yashima is a 1968 runner-up for the Caldecott Medal. Each illustration is like a painting, with soft, warm colors, and it has a lovely story to match. Maurice Sendak is back with another winner. HIGGLETY PIGGLETY POP! OR THERE MUST BE LIFE. I won't tell anything more about this one. Come in and take a look.

Marjorie Hopkins tells the story of Nuka Cham, who lives in a hut in the far north country. When Great-grandmother goes to get oil from the hunters, she leaves Nuka Cham and Old Aunt alone, but tells them that three visitors who need help will come. Against Old Aunt's advice, Nuka Cham helps each visitor, since that is what Great-grandmother would do if she were there. She is more than repaid for her kindness. Anne Rockwell's illustrations are simple and direct.

Free tickets are available now at the library for school children in Monterey and Santa Cruz counties to meet some of their favorite authors and illustrators. The annual Author-Illustrator Festival will be held in the Santa Cruz Civic Auditorium on Saturday, March 30. Buses will be taking children from Carmel, with bus transportation being furnished by the schools. For further information contact either the library or the schools. There will be 26 authors, as well as story hours and special speakers.

"Wiggles" will fit into any family beautifully, especially where there are children. "Wiggles," now up for adoption, is a 3½-month-old puppy with a marvelous disposition. Drop by the SPCA office on David Avenue in New Monterey and say hello to "Wiggles."

Concert Association Presents Pianist Marilyn Neeley

As final concert of the season, the Monterey Peninsula Concert Association will present Marilyn Neeley, pianist, at the Pacific Grove Junior High School Auditorium, Saturday evening, March 23, at 8:15 p.m.

Miss Neeley has frequently been noted as a child prodigy who has grown into a mature young artist. At the age of four and a half Marilyn was taken to study with Madame Ethel Leginska in Los Angeles. She made her debut at the age of six, at a Bach Festival in Los Angeles, where she played a Bach Prelude and Fugue, and soon after made her orchestral debut with the KFI-Hollywood Bowl Symphony, over the air.

After a recital in Town Hall, the New York World Journal Tribune stated: "Exquisite is one of the words for the recital. Tasteful, impeccable and mature are others." To which the Boston Herald added: "Charm, poise, delicacy and warmth, as well as talent."

Attendance is limited to members of the association, and members of similar associations on a space available basis. New members of the Monterey Peninsula Concert Association for the next concert season may be admitted on presentation of their membership receipt.

Aquarius (Jan. 21-Feb. 19)

Expect some sideline activity which produces more money on the 25th. Continued opportunity for advancement. Beware mediating for others. People will visit from a distance.

Pisces (Feb. 20-Mar. 20)

There will be better understanding of problems, but the full moon brings you the feeling of frustration. Charm will sway everyone. Take a trip or have guests. Make new contracts.

Aries (Mar. 21-Apr. 20)

Others will help you with your plans, but don't let others involve you in their plots . . . could prove expensive. Surprise everyone with ability. Tune in on withheld information.

Taurus (Apr. 21-May 21)

Some secrets will be brought into the open. Try to begin some personal problem projects. Lucky month for love. Your popularity is on the increase. You are charming to be sure.

Gemini (May 22-June 21)

Trust your own powers. Draw people who stimulate you intellectually. Tap social contacts and let them help you. Relax, enjoy friends. Expect letters and messages from someone.

Cancer (June 22-July 22)

Careeful not to antagonize anyone . . . especially in business. Use the 31st to visit with friends. Be gay and be your own charming self. Smile and others will follow you.

Leo (July 23-Aug. 23)

Be patient where business associates seem to take their time. Start long-range planning now for business. Be careful not to count your eggs too soon. Danger of jealousy.

Virgo (Aug. 24-Sept. 23)

Libra (Sept. 24-Oct. 23)

Someone opposes your love interest . . . ignore them. Relax now and enjoy fruits of labor. Follow own intuition about romance. Someone's false move forces your takeover.

Scorpio (Oct. 24-Nov. 22)

A new creative job will demand your attention. You can handle any situation, but watch health. Settle old problems with loved ones. Be especially patient with loved ones.

Sagittarius (Nov. 23-Dec. 21)

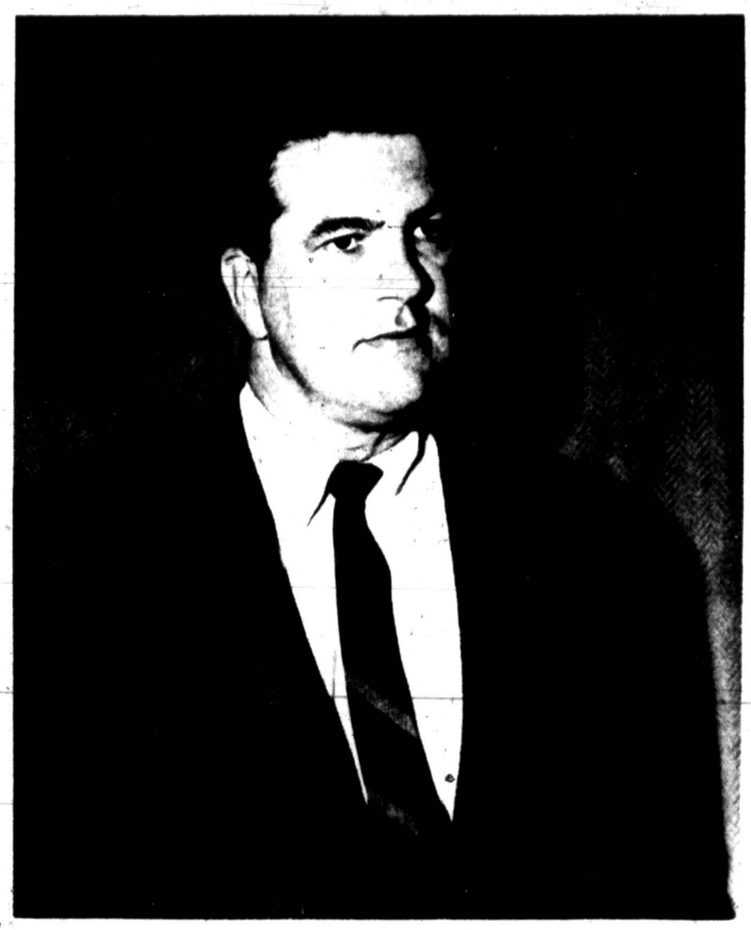

Re-examine long range plans. Excitciting times all week. Enjoy gay pastimes. Love affairs big all month. Be at your best with opposite sex. Expect lasting friendships.

Capricorn (Dec. 22-Jan. 20)

Someone envies your possessions. Follow your own hunches despite advice. Enjoy period of fun at home. You can sway someone who admires you. Make changes. Replanish home.

New Pebble Beach Vice President

Emile H. Bouhaben

Emile H. Bouhaben of Pebble Beach has been elected a vice president in charge of real estate of Del Monte Properties Company, it was announced recently.

A. G. Michaud, president of Del Monte Properties, made the announcement, stating Bouhaben's election took place Wednesday at the company's board of directors meeting in San Francisco.

Bouhaben has been sales manager of the company's real estate division for the last year and has been with the company since 1966.

He will maintain the company's Real Estate Division's Executive offices at 498 Calle Principal in Monterey.

"The expansion of our brokerage department to serve the entire Monterey Peninsula area has been largely due to the abilities of Mr. Bouhaben," Michaud said.

Bouhaben, a graduate of the University of California, was in the real estate development and real estate financing business in the San Francisco Bay area before coming to the Monterey Peninsula.

He is a member of the Carmel Realty Board, first vice president and a member of the executive committee of the Monterey Peninsula Community Chest, a member of the board of directors of the Pacheco Club, the MCID committee on oceanography, and the Heart Fund Drive Committee for the Monterey Peninsula.

Swim Appointed

Governor Ronald Reagan has appointed Dudley Swim of Carmel to the California State Colleges Board of Trustees. He will serve an eight-year term. Swim is chairman of the board of National Airlines.

Fenn Horton – City Council

Editor's Note: Last week the Pine Cone printed each candidate's letter except for Fenn Horton whose call out of town made it impossible to meet our deadline.

I am interested in making certain that the government of Carmel is raising and spending revenues in such a way as to accomplish what the majority of the residents really want it to accomplish. For example, take the Sunset Center. We could turn it into an operation that would offer services to visitors and make a nice profit for the city — but would provide no services for most of our citizens. On the other hand the city could subsidize painters and musicians to come and use the rooms for studios and educational workshops — all at some expense to the city. Before deciding which course to take — between these extremes — I'd want to know how much each course would cost and then get the voters' reactions informally, to find out which use of Sunset Center they thought best after they had had a chance to compare the costs with the benefits. Until I were quite sure we were pursuing the voters' interests, I would want to make no decision at all — none at all.

I realize it's difficult to determine just what our voter majority feels is most desirable, but unless we constantly keep trying to find out then we are falling into error. The error is one of pursuing the wrong objective. Instead of maximizing the interests of our citizens we may simply be maximizing the interests of a small group such as merchants, motel owners, government employees or professional people.

In cases where I am unable to determine what the voters want, then I will act in accord with my own predilections. Among those are (1) a desire to reduce the number of visitors to Carmel; (2) a wish to restore a quieter, simpler, more intimate atmosphere to the village; (3) a reluctance to add any more governmental services — and their implied expenditures — unless they can be demonstrated to produce a net saving in expenses over a fairly short period, say five years; (5) an unwillingness to make any decision to take action until it becomes obvious that some decision is worse than none.

I am an economist, a Ph.D., a professor at the Naval Postgraduate School. I teach courses whose aim is the improvement of the methods of making decisions which are involved in problems similar to those faced by the Carmel city council. Since my income is derived from the federal government, I have no conflict of interests which could compromise my effectiveness as a council member.

MARKET COMMENTARY

Dow Theory Business and Stock Market Forecasts letter dated March 15th, continues the caution that we are in a bear market.

Quoting from the letter — "With a bear market in full swing, under our interpretation of the Dow Theory, this is a time for conserving capital rather than attempting to increase it. Continue to maintain your 50% reserves and any buying that is attempted should be centered in the gold and silver issues and other very selective stocks."

Pork Bellies and Bacon

If you want to know what your bacon is going to cost several months from now, see Mel Grimes. If you want to find out what it will cost to get married, see Victoria Adams concerning platinum for rings and silver for the table.

For those of you bored with just owning a piece of industry via stock certificates, get down to earth — almost literally — and buy a part of the world's primary production — commodities. You can be earthy with pork bellies or esoteric with palladium; confident with cattle and speculative with spuds.

To enable you to be and to know all these things, Mel Grimes in partnership with Victoria Adams established Mel Grimes Brokerage at 449 Pierce Street, Monterey, to serve the Peninsula and the surrounding area. It is the most complete commodity exchange between San Jose and Los Angeles and, in fact, has as modern equipment as any exchange in the West. Mel has a seat on the Chicago Mercantile Exchange with a direct phone line to the floor. The house has the latest instant quote board and world wide commodity news service through mercantile ticker.

Mel and Victoria, residents of the Carmel area for years, have a combined experience as commodity dealers of almost fifty years. The partnership grew out of prior association as independent traders for their own accounts.

The Chicago Mercantile Exchange, of which they are members, is the most active exchange in America, doing twice as much dollar volume as the New York Stock Exchange. Commodity exchanges evolved out of quality controls set up by merchants in Chicago in 1848

Mel Grimes recently opened Mel Grimes Brokerage at 449 Pierce Street in Monterey. The firm promises to be the most complete commodity exchange between San Jose and Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Wilson.

Wedding at All Saints'

All Saints' Episcopal Church was the setting for the recent wedding of Elinor Hollihan of Sherman Oaks and Thomas H. Wilson, son of Mrs. Law Wilson of Carmel and Col. Daniel M. Wilson of Berkeley. The Rev. Peter Farmer officiated at the two o'clock ceremony.

Elinor is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Garrett E. Hollihan of Sherman Oaks. She was attended by Mrs. John Christenson of Palo Alto.

Best man was Robert M. Forbes, Jr., formerly of Carmel, who now lives in Sun Valley, Utah. William Doolittle and Douglas Redding, both of San Francisco, led guests to their seats.

Penelope L. Wilson, sister of the bridegroom, now of New York City, was in charge of the guest book. Mrs. Floyd G. Law of Miami, Florida, grandmother of the bridegroom, was also present.

Tom, a Carmel High School graduate, attended Bakersfield Junior College and San Francisco State College. A special guest at the wedding was former Carmel High School teacher, Mrs. Marquita Brey, long time resident of Carmel who now lives at Rancho Mirage.

A reception at the Hearthstone followed the ceremony, and the couple honeymooned in Sun Valley. They will live in San Francisco where Tom is entering a commercial helicopter business.

French Literary Critic To Lecture In Carmel

With the invitation of Mrs. Bietry-Salinger Carlson, co-president of the local Alliance Francaise and the efforts of Mrs. Joseph Thompson of San Francisco, who is vice-president of the Alliance Francaise in the United States, Mr. Rey Hermes will give a conference on Wednesday evening at 8:30, March 27, at the Carmel Art Association in Carmel at 6th and Dolores. All French speaking persons are invited to hear this noted authority from the Alliance's headquarters in Paris. A small donation will be accepted to help this summer's French language scholarship which will send a local student of French for advanced studies at the school maintained by the Alliance in Paris. Refreshments will be served at the lecture.

The monthly French conversation tea will take place at the Highlands home of Mrs. Leonard Klene whose co-hostess will be Mrs. Jack Longfellow of Carmel Valley. The date is Tuesday, March 26 at 3 p.m. Members are requested to telephone Mrs. Longfellow at 659-4789 or Mrs. Leonard McCoy at 372-5449. Mrs. McCoy is chairman for the Alliance teas.

Back From SE Asia

Mrs. Alvin (Hildegarde) Ferrera returned Saturday from five months in southeast Asia where she added to her slide collection in India, Vietnam, Singapore, New Zealand and Australia.

She was recently the luncheon guest of Miss Esther Longfellow of San Carlos Road.

UC Centennial Saturday

Among Carmelites attending the University of California Centennial exercises and class reunions at Berkeley, this week-end, are James F. van Loben Sels and Shirley Houghton, both of whom were graduated in the class of 1905 after attending Oakland High School together.

Fabulous Furs At Symphonie d'Elegance

Mrs. Charles Dean of Carmel won the Hawaiian week for two, donated by Kona Plantation, one of the thirty door prizes donated to the Symphony Guild for its tea and sherry afternoon at the Club Mesa of the new Del Mesa Carmel condominiums. White orchids grown by Guild president, Mrs. Cecil G. Barker, were given her for her trip.

Spring frocks and hats by I. Magnin, as well as seasonal furs were modeled by some of the Guild's most glamorous members and friends, Mrs. Robert Ames, Mrs. Edith Cox Clancy, Mrs. Lynn Cox, and Mrs. Siguard Liseth of Carmel; Mrs. Darius Keaton, Mrs. Jack Miller, Mrs. Graeme MacKenzie, Mrs. George McMahon, Mrs. Jack Stein, and Miss Pamela Wedlake of Pebble Beach; Mrs. Frederick Jandrey of Carmel Valley, and Mrs. Monte Harrington of Carmel Highlands.

Mrs. Robert Robertson was responsible for the flower arrangements which were reddish pink quince blossoms, white camellias and peach-colored carnations on the tea and sherry table. On the long refreshment tables, large opium bowls filled with white gladiolas and small white chrysanthemums, were combined with silver candelabra.

A large committee under the general chairmanship of Mrs. James Parks helped make the afternoon a success.

Fashion commentator Morden Buck was later joined by Jon deJong, conductor of the Monterey County Symphony.

It's A Boy For Jerry Winters

Friends of Barbara and Jerry Winters of Pebble Beach are jubilant about the arrival of Kevin Winters, late Monday night at Community Hospital. He will of course occupy the newly decorated nursery received at the shower not long ago.

Barbara's mother, Mrs. George Gnau of Scottsdale, Arizona, is here to help.

Weavers Meet

Carmel Handweavers met at the home of Admiral and Mrs. Edwin Layton, Carmel Highlands, last week.

Mrs. Walter Hibbs and Mrs. Kipp Stewart attended as guests and prospective new members of the group.

Mrs. Warren Crabtree showed recently completed yardage made from yarns she spun and dyed herself. This is a handsome piece in desert tones made to be entered at the Northern California Handweavers Conference to be held in San Francisco next May.

Mrs. Layton exhibited a collection of interesting fabrics from southeast Asia.

Gholson Engagement

Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Gholson of Pebble Beach are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Janis Lee, to Mr. Alan Louis Petitte, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Petitte of San Diego.

Jan, graduate of Monterey High School in 1964, is presently attending the University of California at Berkeley where she is affiliated with Alpha Gamma Delta sorority. She plans to graduate this June with a major in Anthropology.

She is a Past Honored Queen of Job's Daughters, Bethel No. 223, in Pacific Grove.

Alan is originally from Englewood, New Jersey, but now makes his home in Alameda, California. He was graduated from Scotsdale High School, Scotsdale, Arizona, in 1961. Alan has completed a tour of duty with the U. S. Coast Guard and is now a student at the University of San Francisco.

Jan has one brother, Jeffrey Gholson. She is the granddaughter of the late Mrs. Murrill A. Goodden, of Pebble Beach, and Mr. and Mrs. Earl W. Gholson, of Las Animas, Colorado.

The young couple plan a June 29th wedding in Carmel Valley, at Our Lady of Mount Carmel Church.

Virtuoso Entertained

Leonard Pennario was the luncheon guest of Mrs. Robert (Virginia) Stanton on Tuesday, and later on the guest at tea of Rachel Morton at her Carmel Valley studio.

Pine Cone Printers Are Best

Letters To The Editor

Editor, Carmel Pine Cone
Carmel, California

Dear Mr. Editor,

The population explosion and the California climate have worked together to pose one of the most unremitting, ever increasing problems ever faced by taxpayers. Carmel has had only an eddy current sampling of this problem to date, but in the foreseeable future all indications point to a mushrooming population.

Presently the school officials are concerned about space, building programs are being laid out, financing is being assessed, the taxpayer is being informed. The questions being asked by all are: Can the taxpayer carry this added burden? What other ways can the expense be met?

The question I would like to pose is: If we turned loose of our traditional approach to the school-year planning and took a fresh, creative tack, could we solve our school building problem with no additions? I believe we can.

I propose a four quarter—choose three—school year. (i.e. All youngsters would register, stating their preferred quarter for vacation, and giving a second choice. Youngsters with brothers and/or sisters in school would be programmed together on the same quarter preference, followed by singles receiving their preference as class size permitted.) The immediate effect of such a plan is an increased capacity of 33.3 per cent within the present buildings. There are other advantages. Merchants, tradespeople, service companies all have odd jobs which they would hire teenagers for if they could count on their availability year-round. Under our present system the three summer months bring a flood of applicants, but the remainder of the year only an erratic trickle. The result—these businesses cover the jobs with help from nearby communities and no, or few, teenage jobs exist, even for the summer. A job is a valuable experience to a teenager. It gives him the opportunity for a practical assessment of career opportunities; it teaches the necessity for listening to instructions, following orders, being efficient, meeting the public pleasantly; it is a constructive experience, rather than the too often observed loitering boredom which leads to mischief. Still another advantage: many families have keen interests they would like to develop together, some are skiing enthusiasts—for them a winter quarter vacation would allow free reign on the slopes; others are travel oriented—for them a spring or fall quarter vacation would be delightful. And father would find this greater freedom for vacation choice a great boon for his employer who presently tries to pack everyone into a few weeks—or, as in our case, vacations are assigned anytime but in the summer months causing conflicts with school officials when we want to remove the youngsters to join in a family trip. The summer vacation plan was actually set up for an agrarian society which we no longer are.

Programming for this free flowing four quarter system would be the most challenging aspect, though with our computers this would not pose an insurmountable problem.

Staffing would be another

Balance Plus takes the worry out of April 15th.

Balance Plus is just what it sounds like.

Your checking balance, plus our balance.

It lets you write checks for more than you have in your account, without overdrawing.

In fact, it puts an end to inadvertent overdrafts.

You can write yourself an instant loan, anytime—and you don't have to go to the bank!

Balance Plus takes the worry out of a sudden need for money.

It covers deadlines (like this year's taxes) and opportunities (like a very good bargain in furniture, or fishing gear, or furs).

How much does it cost you to have a Balance Plus account?

Nothing.

You pay interest only when you use it.

So why just have a balance?

Why not have a Balance Plus?

On us.

Carmel Travelers

Note: Gilbert Boyer, Jr., after joining his parents in Germany, stayed there for two years working in an electronics research laboratory in Munich. Last October he left with a German friend to travel around the world on his way home to California. Following are excerpts from some of his letters to his parents in Carmel.

Dear Mother and Dad: We left October 2nd from Munich — have been very busy getting used to living in a 1956 VW bug.

Dubrovnik, Jugoslavia

We've spent two weeks getting to Dubrovnik by way of Vienna, Rijeka, and then along the Dalmation coast to Dubrovnik. Until now, our system has been quite comical, inefficient, and not very effective as far as getting to know Jugoslavians is concerned. Most of the people we've met have been other foreigners: Germans, English, Australian, Dutch and Polish.

Belgrade

We found the road to Sarajevo, through a miniature Grand Canyon, very beautiful and interesting as most of the traffic consisted of stake-bed trucks, loaded with almost everything possible from lumber, bricks and cement to produce; those mixed with many oxcarts, horsecarts, people in Turkish costumes, and our first mosques. Also, as soon as we left the coast and went over the first little pass to Moslar, we left the beautiful 70 to 80 degree Adriatic weather behind us and came into 40 degree fall weather with the mountains and their coat of deciduous trees turning to yellow, red, brown and orange, with the dark green pines or firs standing out like the priests somberly dressed among their congregations.

We took off on a road marked Belgrade which immediately turned to dirt where it shouldn't have, according to our map. After travelling about five miles we stopped and asked an oxcart driver in our terrible Serbo-Croatiòn if the road went to Belgrade. He said "Yes" so we drove further, over five terrible, shaking, car-wrecking miles until we came to a crossing with road signs. Well, it seems that there are two roads from Sarajevo to Belgrade, one paved and one dirt all the way. We figured we were on the dirt one. We got on the right road, slept in a mown corn field, woke up next morning with frost on the ground, and travelled the whole day to Belgrade, a very large, modern city.

After three days in Belgrade, which we didn't like in spite of its having some beautiful and interesting museums, we drove through rolling valleys rimmed in the distance by soft mountains of green, the fields showing themselves much more fertile as we drove further. Peasants were in their fields digging potatoes, harvesting corn, but most of all tending their flocks of sheep, herds of cows, mules, donkeys, horses and now and again cattle with wide gnu's horns, all this in a valley of green, checked with black and red plowed fields and scattered trees.

Patras, Greece

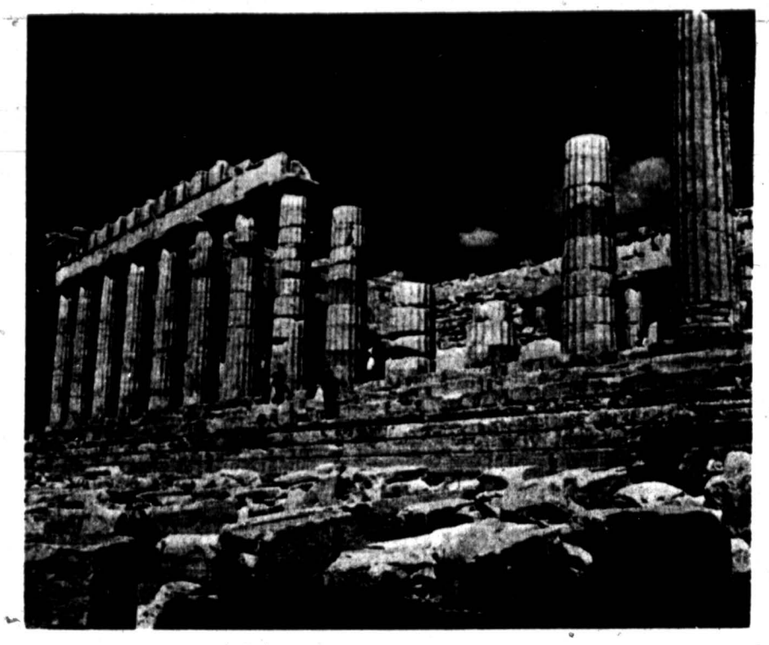

We crossed the border into Greece at Bitola after spending three days at Lake Ohrid. We drove through Greek mountains to patras on the Peloponnesus where we are in a youth hostel, so we haven't started on Greek antiquities yet.

From the Piraeus, Greece

We just spent three days in an Athens youth hostel and it seems to be a crossroad of the young English-speaking world, students, travelers coming from and going to Turkey, Israel, India, Crete, Jugoslavia and all other points of the compass. Most are hitchhiking, one or two have cars and one couple is traveling to India on a motorscooter. We've had a couple of pretty mixed-up sessions: guitar played by a very loud, very strong Alaskan, oboe, two blues harmonicas, and my flute. I met a 21 year old from Robert Louis Stevenson School who "winters" in Munich and always wear a complete cowboy outfit.

From Ioaninna we went to Dodoni, with its temple and theater of Zeus, and we drove to Olympia and the beautiful ruins there. We went to Argos and Nauplion then on to Corinth, climbed unexcavated ruins, and on to Athens.

Further adventures will be printed later on.

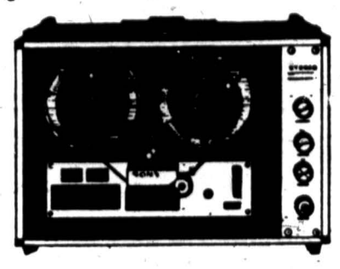

Ruins of Greece.

OBITUARIES

About a year ago in this column, I told of our efforts to put a halt to malicious and obscene calls. Today, I'm happy to report that the tide is turning in the battle against abusive telephone callers.

By working closely with Monterey Peninsula law enforcement agencies, giving many of our employees special training, and using a variety of new electronic devices, arrests and convictions have almost doubled in the past year.

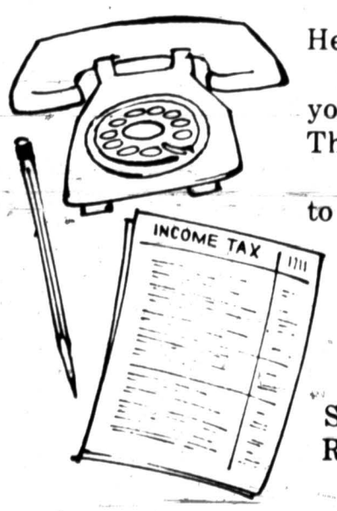

The best advice I can offer you should you ever receive such a call, is to hang up. This usually deprives the annoyance caller of the main thing he wants—an audience. However, should the calls continue, I encourage you to call our Monterey Business Office.

With the increasing rise in convictions, the obscene and threatening caller is discovering that his chance of avoiding detection is growing slimmer every day.

Overheard at the movies:
"How far down do you want to sit?" asked the usher.
"All the way," answered the lady. "I am very tired."

Here's a helpful suggestion for you if you haven't filled out your income tax return as yet. The Internal Revenue Service again this year will be glad to answer questions by phone. If there's an IRS office near you, you'll find the number listed in the white pages of your phone book under the heading: "United States Government, Internal Revenue Service." Call them if you have a question.

THE GIRARD SEASCAPE GALLERY

GIRARD AKEN, Painter of the Sea & Clipper Ships.

A native born Californian, now making his home in Carmel, Mr. Aken studied at the California School of Fine Arts, San Francisco, as well as The College of Arts & Crafts in Berkeley. He was privately tutored by a number of prominent painters.

One Man Shows include exhibition participation in the De Young Museum, Oakland Art Museum, Egyptian Oriental Museum, and many others.

Awards: First in Oil, Mother Lode Annual (Sonora); First in Watercolor, Alameda County Fair, as well as others.

The artist captures the fury of the surf with brush and palette knife with his love of natural beauty and the challenge of the everchanging ocean. His canvases come alive with the spirit and vitality of the sea.

His new studio shows only his own works which are inspired by the sea from the coast of Monterey to Big Sur.

CRAFT STUDIOS ARE A DELIGHT

This writer will never forget the delight experienced in first discovering the Carmel Craft Studios on San Carlos Street just south of Ocean. I am sure that every visitor to Carmel feels the same pleasure in exploring the various studios and galleries surrounding the gay tables and open fire of Paulina's Italian Restaurant. This cozy complex was the idea of Fred Klepich, who 13 years ago made his ingenious idea a reality.

The visitor here can enjoy John Calder's glass blown fantasies, the gallery of Edith Dinkin, pottery by the Bells, handmade jewelry by Evelyn Scardigh at Studio 7, and Erica Franke's handsome stone glaze tiles. There is Laura Hoffman's Carmel Work Center, selling hand crafted work by the finest artisans in this area. Studio Art Supplies Gallery carries the delightful water colors of entrepreneur Klipich. S.A.S. Gallery is also the agent for Leslie Emery, whose unforgettable portraits of appealing dark eyed children and the time worn beauty of the aged are done with painstaking devotion to detail. The timeless beauty of Emery's work is also evidenced in Mexican village and garden scenes. Mr. Emery is truly one of Carmel's "greats."

WASSERMAN SHOW

Carmel Art Association member, Gerald Wasserman, is having a one man show at Crown College, University of California, Santa Cruz. The opening is March 26 and the show will continue through April.

The exhibit will include oil paintings, drawings and large metal sculpture pieces, a new medium for the versatile Mr. Wasserman.

LaPIERRE SHOW IN SEASIDE

Currently on display in the Seaside City Hall gallery are some oil paintings and recent collages done by John LaPierre of Pacific Grove. He is an active member of Carmel Art Association and chairman of the art department for P. G. High School.

This is his fourth one-man show since 1952. Many of his works have been exhibited in Carmel, Pebble Beach, Palo Alto, Palm other places in California Springs, San Francisco, and besides gaining recognition and awards at the Oakland Open Show, Crocker Art Gallery in Sacramento, Kingsley Art Show, National Grange Art Show, Monterey County Fair and in Germany, where his works were included in the "Young American Painters in Germany" Show.

The public is invited to view this exhibit, sponsored by the Seaside Art Commission, from now until March 30th. during the regular city hall office hours, along with the display in the glass cases arranged by the Girl Scouts, Oakside Neighborhood.

The Carmel Museum of Art opened Tuesday an exciting unusual new exhibit, "The Magic Lens of Dr. Genthe."

The show will continue through May featuring photographs and paintings done by artists who posed for Dr. Genthe.

Dr. Genthe's film of Chinatown before the 1906 fire is one of the few pictorial records of that early San Francisco history.

CARMEL-BY-THE-SEA

CARMEL is a breath of fresh air, an awareness of beauty. The materialist says of Carmel, "corny," nothin' to do. The idealist glimpses something of reality and a meaning of life in this area of great beauty.

Located, as Carmel is, almost on the west edge of the west coast, it benefits from clean Pacific air, filtered and conditioned by thousands of miles of ocean. It is snuggled into an intimate bay where it receives protection from northerly winds and is guarded by nearby Point Lobos and the Santa Lucia Mountains.

Some Carmel Business Association facts are included in the following:

BRIEF HISTORY

CARMEL-BY-THE-SEA is a residential community and art center located on the Pacific shore of Monterey County, California, 130 miles south of San Francisco and 350 miles north of Los Angeles.

Carmel is an informal, individualist town with a citizenry that constantly strives to preserve the natural beauty of ocean, hills and woods. Homes nestle around and under trees on the slopes that rise from the world-famous white sands of Carmel Beach. Local ordinances tightly restrict business zones (i.e., none on the Beach front), outlaw billboard and neon advertising, and control indiscriminate tree cutting.

Carmel has no cemetery, no mail delivery, no street addresses (mail is picked up at the local post office), and except for the business district, conventional sidewalks and street lights are missing.

The village is culturally active in music, art and little theatre groups, and features locally-made art objects in many gift shops.

CARMEL was named for the Carmelite Friars who came to the area with Viscaino in 1602. Carmel's first building, the Mission San Carlos de Borromeo (second of the great Franciscan Missions in California) was established by Father Junipero Serra in 1770.

In the early 1900's, the village of Carmel began around a group of young artists and writers. Five hundred residents living in an area of 7/8 of one square mile incorporated Carmel-by-the-Sea in 1916 and established a Mayor and City Council government.

The Wonderful World of the Pine Inn

How can the PINE INN gain the right to be known throughout the world without the continuous warmth and hospitality that wraps itself around each guest as he enters.

The PINE INN holds a personality and attraction for its owner, who returns it by close attention to the wants of each guest and, to the PINE INN itself, constant additions and refurbishing to bring it to its present state of graciousness. Encompassed within its present structure is the original INN, perhaps embuing the present with the aura of the past.

The PINE is truly an INN.

They DID tell their friends!

From all over the world, as the records show, came guests — from Counts and Barons to the itinerant traveler.

We don't know how many we had in 1915, but during 1967 the PINE INN entertained in excess of 377,000 guests in its various capacities: its individually designed bedrooms in the Victorian mood, the Crystal Room and Victorian Room as private dining supplements to the Main Dining Room, all famous for their delectible cuisine, and the Red Parlor to toast good health and happiness.

Relax after your 17 Minute Walk with cocktails, lunch or dinner at the PINE INN.

Lyceum Announces Spring Schedule

The Lyceum of the Monterey Peninsula has scheduled the largest number of programs in its history for this spring. Courses offered cover a myriad of subjects. They are sponsored by the Lyceum, in cooperation with local public, parochial and private schools.

The Lyceum of the Monterey Peninsula is a lay association of men and women who believe that youth of high ability are one of the nation's greatest assets. It is a non-profit organization and is able to operate due to donations and through the assistance of local people using private and community resources.

Lt.J.G. G. L. Barksdale of the U.S. Naval Postgraduate School has a group of eleventh and twelfth grade students in a Workshop in Digital Computer Programming.

Dennis Radford of Walston and Company and Owen Teeters of the United California Bank are conducting an economics seminar: The Stock Exchange and the Bank, for students of grades 11 and 12. One of the high points of the seminar has been a trip to the Federal Reserve Bank in San Francisco and the Pacific Coast Stock Exchange.

A group of fourth graders is attending a workshop in beginning Spanish. Mrs. Gordon Miller of Monterey is conducting this class which is now in its second six-week session.

John Ahern of Walter Colton Junior High School has fifth grade students in a course in beginning German. This workshop is in its second six-week session also. It is expected that the German and Spanish programs will both extend over a three-year period.

A seminar on "Famous Math Problems, Solved and Unsolved" is being held for tenth and eleventh grades. Professor Eric Langford of the U. S. Naval Postgraduate School Math Department is the leader.

Mrs. James D. Niebel is directing a "Living Bill of Rights Seminar." Discussion leaders include Dr. Jack Leach, Lewis F. Fenton, Ralph Atkinson, Robert Beck, Peter Lyon, Charles Page and Carl E. Pohlhammer. Students of grades 11 through 14 are in this group.

"Jazz Music, Its Theory and Appreciation" is the subject of a seminar to be conducted by Johnny Adams, Radio Station KIDD staff member. Mr. Adams will use records from his personal collection as well as jazz artists themselves to help illustrate his lectures. These classes are for students in grades 9 through 12.

Twenty-five students in grades 11 and 12 are being offered a seminar on the "Peaceful Uses of Atomic Energy." Discussion leaders are Professors H. E. Handler and Paul Marto of the Navy School; Dr. John Phillips, Director of the Hopkins Marine Station; and local Doctors of Medicine James Rasband and Tom Morris.

Naval Postgraduate School Professors Charles Taylor, Robert Renard and Ronnie Alberty will teach a selected group of seventh graders meteorology. Among the subjects to be covered are instruments and observations, satellite meteorology and conversion in the atmosphere.

Oceanography, including earthquakes, marine biology and dynamic oceanography will be presented to a seminar of eighth grade students. Professors Warren Denner, Eugene Haderlie and Theodore Green III of the Postgraduate School will conduct the classes.

Mrs. Barbara Kramer of the Kramer School for Secretaries is conducting a workshop in elementary typing. This course is being offered to fifth and sixth grade students. They will be taught care of the typewriter, letter and term paper writing as well as learning to attain a typing speed of 20 to 25 words per minute.

Two Junior Great Books Discussion Groups are in progress at the Monte Vista School. One is for students in grade 4, and the other for students in grade 6. Discussion leaders for the fourth graders is Mrs. Jane Everett, and for the sixth grade, Mrs. James V. Sanders and Mrs. John R. Neighbours.

Mrs. Edith Karas is the leader in a workshop in Speech Arts for eleventh and twelfth grade students. In addition to dialogue and conversation, the class will include panel discussions, reports, symposiums, and the use of visual aids.

The Lyceum also has plans later in the spring for seminars on Group Dynamics, Statistics, and Medicine. For information regarding the Lyceum or its programs, write to Route 3, Box 430, Carmel, California, or phone 624-2403. Office hours are 12:00 to 4 p.m., Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays.

Get Ready For Dixie

It has been announced that tickets are now on sale for one of the finest presentations of Dixieland music ever put together on the same stage.

Some of the greats to be featured will be Louis Armstrong, "The Dukes of Dixieland," "The Firehouse Five Plus Two," Bob Crosby and the Bobcats, Turk Murphy; and to prove that Dixieland is not a lost or dying art, there will be a group of thirteen-year olds called "Pawnticket and the Hockshop Four."

There will also be a fantastic traditional group of college men who bill themselves as the "South Market Street Jazz Band." to mention all of the fine talent that will be there would be impossible, but here are a few: Barbara Kelly, of the Hurdy Gurdy televsision show and recently on the Joey Bishop nitetime program; Mickey Finn, of the nationally known television show by the same name; Clancy Hayes, world-famous banjoist and singer; Wally Rose, one of the finest ragtime piano players of all time; Pat Yankee—a belter—she alone is worth going to Monterey to hear.

As previously stated, it would be impossible to mention them all. What is important is that it is going to be a fun festival of the happiest music ever known, and we look forward to seeing you all there.

This festival is being sponsored by Dixieland Monterey, a non-profit corporation, with all proceeds going to the Monterey Community Hospital Building Fund; and not to be confused with any of the other fine festivals on the Monterey Peninsula.

The fun begins on Friday night, May 10 and continues through Saturday night, May 11 at the Monterey County Fairgrounds. Tickets or ticket information may be obtained by writing Dixieland Monterey, Inc., P.O. Box 1622, Monterey, California, 93940.

OUR READERS SAY . . .

"The Pine Cone has the best looking printing and illustrations I ever saw in a newspaper."

I like to stop and watch the water and sit on the grassy slope breaking the glass of heaven with a stick letting it go to calm again because it looks better and watch the reflected clouds seep by all the way from bank to bank

Fenton Chosen MPC Trustee

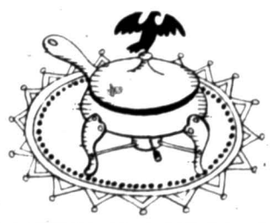

At a special meeting of the Monterey Peninsula College board of trustees, Monterey attorney Lewis L. Fenton was appointed to fill out the unexpired term of Trustee Nancy O'Hara, who has moved out of the college district, after serving for four years.

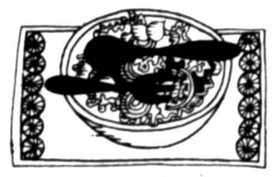

The appointment was made, according to Board Chairman Russel Hansen, after the qualifications of some 20 candidates had been considered and many of these persons had been interviewed.

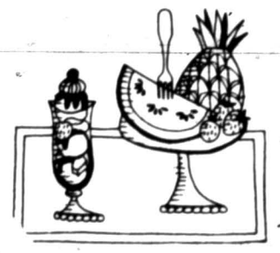

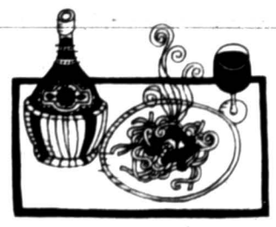

We may live without poetry, music and art;
We may live without conscience and live without heart;
We may live without friends; we may live without books;
But civilized man can not live without cooks.
He may live without books,
what is knowledge but grieving?
He may live without hope, what is hope but deceiving?
He may live without love, what is passion but pining?
But where is the man that can live without dining?

REPORTS FROM RLS

By Chandler Meloy

Chase Top Student In Fourth Period

Arlen Chase of Pebble Beach, with a perfect 100.0 academic average, was the top student at RLS as grades were announced for the fourth grading period.

Chase, who has been battling Robert Howard all year for that top spot, nosed out Robert by .75 points. Both boys have been in the 100.0 range for most of their academic lives.

Some 30 boys made the coveted Faculty Honors list this time, with athletes, debators and student leaders taking most of the spots.

Faculty Honors: (95.0-100.0)

Arlen Chase, Robert Howard, Alan Yates, Jack Booth, Steven Perelli-Minetti, Myron Melen, Ray Cleary, Charles Winton, John Cann, West Clark, Art Lara, Mark Kaminski, Tom Dillon, Thomas Daggett, David Haynes, Robert Tarics, Claude Wynn, Richard Li, Cavin Philbin, William L. Smith Jr., Robert Ervin, Gary Novak, Andrew Fox, Robert Tilghman, David Klien, Steve Laney, Bruce Decker, Lonnie Foy, Geoff Haynes and William Kondrat.

Sixty-four boys achieved the academic rating of 90.0 or better to make the Honor Roll. In addition to this outstanding academic record, there were some 62 boys that just missed the honor roll by less than four points. This over-all record is the best academic performance in the school's 16-year history.

Honor Roll: (90.0-94.99)

Bruce Burrell, Bruce Johnston, James Shelton, John Enders, Chris Baumgart, Willis Cook, Craig Graffin, William Hague, Steven Russell, Eric Haas, Casey Charles, Hok Leung, Chris Parker, John Urist, James Booth, Ken Dillon, Pete Cowden, Douglas Mennell, James Coonan, Kenneth Rich, Robert Thompson, Michael Bohman, Chris Connally, Mark Dirickson, John Sharon, Kurt Wolf, George Kelley, Gerald Bearden, Dan Daly, Bryon Hillstrom, Larry Flagg, Eric Paulsen, Robert Kelley, Jeffrey, Bennett, Samuel Perkins, Robert Arnott, James Doyle, Allen Olinger, Keith Wilson, Robert Yung, Paul Lindersmith, Don Dormer, David Marihart, Michael Morel, Jeffrey Tuttle, Mark Belza, Brent Lloyd, Joe Todd, Chris Clark, Michael Donahoe Daniel Robinson, Edward Taaffe, George Winters, Michael Greene, Gordan Bradley, Michael Dilley, James Dunn, Michael Gianascol, Mark Hornberger, Jeffrey Kuhn, William Rawson and James Russell.

Sports In Full Swing

A full report next week on individual honors, but the sports program is now in full swing with all major and minor events on the schedule.

The baseball players finally got in a game, and shades of last year when they "dropped" their first 13 contests to the "rainmaker," they were rained out of two contests this year.

The track team, in its opening meet, defeated York, but lost to Pacific Grove and Hollister. The JV's, led by sensational Sam Perkins (with four firsts . . . he was entered in a fifth event but couldn't get there due to conflicts) defeated Hollister and York and were nosed out by P.G. Both teams will face these squads again this season, so revenge is in the air.

NEXT WEEK: Swim, Golf, Polo and Tennis.

area where creative planning would come into play—but California is so naturally attractive that vacationing teachers from other states would jump at the opportunity to teach the summer quarter here. Also, some of our teachers might enjoy the increase of 33.3 per cent on their year's salary and teach the fourth quarter themselves.

To illustrate a four quarter year plan: the fall-quarter would begin October 1, 1968 and terminate on December 20, 1968; the winter-quarter would begin January 2, 1969 and terminate March 28, 1969; the spring-quarter would begin April 7, 1969 and end June 27, 1969; the summer-quarter would begin on July 7, 1969 and end September 26, 1969. The next four quarters would begin on October 6, 1969. The week-plus between each quarter would give more vacation time to a four quarter teaching teacher than most businessmen receive, with additional advantage of a more frequent and varied break for both teachers and students.

Oh—there will be those traditional conservatives who will immediately say, "No! It can't be done!" But while they are refusing to think imaginatively or creatively there are some in our community who are on fixed incomes who are being forced to think, very creatively, about stretching their inflation eroded retirement income. They cannot increase their income. Is it fair to add more to their already anxious circumstance? I don't think it's fair nor necessary. After all, no business in the world shuts its plant down and leaves its investment lying unused for three months of each year. Any that did would be bankrupt. By the same reasoning, why should schools?

Sincerely yours,
Kathryn C. Hunter

Tennis Pro At Pebble

Tennis pro Michael Hook of Seattle has been named head tennis professional at the Beach and Tennis Club at Pebble Beach.

Hook was previously associated with the Seattle Tennis Club and is married and the father of three daughters.

He succeeds Ray March who has been head tennis pro for the last six months. March will work with Hood in coordinating tennis events at Pebble Beach.

Before his work in Seattle, Hook was with the Jamaica Inn Tennis Club at Corona del Mar. He was director of tennis for the city of Newport Beach, where he authored a teaching instructor's manual now used by that city.

TRAVEL TAX COMMENT:

"To curtail trade while leaving the main source of imbalance untouched is economic folly and bankrupt statesmanship."

Scouts Exchange Cookie Recipes

Brownie Scouts from Carmel troop 2084 met with visiting food editors and "swapped recipes" for Girl Scout cookies during General Food Corporation's convention at the Highlands Inn last week. Claudia Hrusa presented cookies to Ellen Ann Dunham, Vice President of General Food Corporation as Barbara Baker, Carmel area cookie chairman looked on. Seated are Dorothy Papio and Claudia Baker.

One of the main sources of funding for this worthwhile movement is the annual sale of Girl Scout cookies. The last day of the sale for cookies is Saturday, March 23. This is the "Clean Sweep Sale" and will end the annual campaign. This Saturday, Cadette Troop 2158 of Carmel will be selling at two locations in town — at the Post Office and at Crocker Citizens National Bank on the corner of Ocean Avenue and Dolores. You can also call Mrs. Baker at 624-6314 for home delivery of the cookies.

Letter To Editor

Mr. W. H. Oliver, Jr.
Post Office Box 4976
Carmel, California 93921
Dear Mr. Oliver:

I could not agree more with the article which you sent me from the Pine Cone. It is absolutely a disgrace the way we have allowed the statutes to become a protection for the criminal. We have tried to tighten up since the new Reagan Administration came in and the Republicans have put through some legislation to help the law enforcement officers. I agree with you also that the Supreme Court in its liberal interpretation to protect personal rights has made it very hard for the law enforcement officer to handle crime. I feel the same as you do.

Sincerely,
ALAN G. PATTEE

Commission Discusses Parking Request

The Planning Commission met yesterday afternoon at which time they discussed a request from the Presbyterian Church to devote another 6000 square feet to their already 8000 square feet of parking area in an R-1 district.

Chairman Fred Keeble's report stated that the commission and council encourages parking facilities within the R-1 district adjacent to the central business district, but it was not originally considered desirable for ALL fringe residential areas.

The report contained questions which will be presented to the Joint Parking Committee next week, and the commission hoped they could be answered before the next Commission meeting March 27. One question to be answered is: "Are some of the (R-1 P-3) parking lots being used to their fullest or are they being used perhaps on a limited or one-day-a-week basis?"

BOTH A HOME AND INCOME, south of Ocean, on a corner and near the beach! Doesn't this sound like all that you have been looking for? We think so and it's only $41,500. Two bedrooms and 2 baths, open beam ceiling, separate dining room and sunny built-in kitchen. And then there's the detached room and bath for income or studio. This you must see!

OUR FAVORITE HOME in lower Carmel Valley will be yours, too, when you see it. Right on Carmel River, it is a choice place for a growing family. Refreshingly contemporary in design, it is efficient and lovely. The kitchen is a marvel and is the center of activities. The living, dining and family rooms all have open beams and the sundeck faces onto the river. Three bedrooms and 2 baths—all for $59,900 and you SHOULD see it!

SPRING IS HERE! The artichoke fields and hills are full of color and you get sweeping views of them from this gracious home. All rooms are large and are ideal for entertaining—or just enjoyable living. Three bedrooms and 2 baths on a lower level, plus an additional hideaway for a member of the family who wants privacy. There's a lot of house here for just $54,500!

TRUE, YANKEE POINT ISN'T ON THE AMALFI DRIVE, BUT IT IS ON CALIFORNIA'S FIRST SCENIC HIGHWAY!

WERE IT IN ITALY, CARMEL RIVIERA DRIVE COULD NOT OVERLOOK THE BLUE WATERS OF THE PACIFIC OCEAN!

So, if you love the blue water and white surf of the Pacific, the heliotrope and mauve shades of ceanothus, the golden acacia, genista and poppies, and the green towering pines and mountains, and IF YOU WANT TO LIVE in a modern three-bedroom home in the midst of all this beauty, drive South from Carmel for ten minutes. (Simple, isn't it? No passports, visas or "shots").

On the East side of Carmel Riviera Drive the redwood house with the big sundeck facing the Ocean has a small "For Sale" sign on a post. It meets all the above specifications and may be purchased for only $53,500. A big down payment is not required from a Buyer who can make substantial monthly paymetns and the Seller will carry the loan at only 6%. (Also simple. No appraisals, loan fees or other handicaps.)

WEBER REAL ESTATE EXCHANGE

"SURE, EXCHANGING IS EASY"

PRIDE OF OWNERSHIP
"That's mine," or more modestly, "I happen to own that," or "That is one of my investments" — is nice to say. It is possible for the experienced investor to select interesting and attractive properties.
The true investor takes even more pride in an adequate and proper return on the amount invested. He knows his invested capital is producing maximum gains. Of course, he does not proclaim this publicly. He confidently continues to plan for the progressive future of his estate, obtaining over-all growth as possible, obtaining cash as necessary, and eventually retires to an active life of fulfilled desires.
Being able to have "double pride of ownership," i.e., quality appearance and excellent return, is possible on several of our listings, both local and statewide.
CARMEL MOTOR HOTEL, showing over 10% spendable return, very interesting, even exciting. Call Harold or Joe.
20 UNITS, good income, good tax shelter, will exchange for — you tell us.

Citizens Committee Backs Sunset and Motel Ordinances

(Editor's note: The Carmel Citizen's Committee took official action regarding the rezoning of Sunset Center and providing for limited motel use in the R-1 District. These two measures will be brought before the Citizens for a vote in the April 9th elections. Following are the resolutions from the Committee.)

RESOLUTION
Recommending the rezoning of Sunset Center from R-1 to A-2

WHEREAS: The Sunset School property, when bought for a "Municipal Community and Cultural Center" was zoned Residential R-1, and

WHEREAS: Such a Center's activities, — concerts, stage performances, lectures, offices, art exhibits, — all are prohibited in R-1, and

WHEREAS: Ordinance No. 158 passed by the City Council on December 18, 1968, rezoned the property to A-2 in which these and related desirable activities are permitted, and

WHEREAS: The cultural tenants now in Sunset feel that their present approved status may be jeopardized if this Ordinance is defeated, and

WHEREAS: The need for paid parking on the north lot is not presently a problem due to the approval of free parking on the west and south lots and the permitting of beautification and improvement of the north lot for recreational purposes, and

WHEREAS: No other satisfactory method of legalizing present Sunset Center activities has been suggested, and

WHEREAS: If this Ordinance be defeated, no new Ordinance may be introduced for 12 months,

Now, THEREFORE: The Board of Directors of the CARMEL CITIZENS COMMITTEE recommends a "Yes" vote for Ordinance No. 158, A-2 zoning for Sunset Center, Measure No. 2 on the April 9, 1968 ballot.

RESOLUTION
March 11, 1968
Recommending approval of Ordinance No. 156 which prohibits any expansion of inns or motels in the R-1 Residential District.

The Board of Directors of the CARMEL CITIZENS COMMITTEE, after long study and consideration of Ordinance No. 156, Resolves as follows:

Ordinance No. 156, prohibiting any additional motels in the Single Family Residential District (R-1), and prohibiting any expansion of those in existence on January 1, 1967 should be approved by the voters of Carmel at the Municipal election on April 9, 1968.

Our reasons for supporting a "Yes" vote on Ordinance No. 156 are as follows:

1. The Ordinance will prevent the establishment of additional motels in the R-1 Residential area.
2. It will prevent expansion of existing motels in R-1.
3. This problem has existed for many years and is growing worse. The City Council and the Planning Commission after two years of exhausting study passed Ordinance No. 156 to remedy the situation.
4. If this Ordinance be defeated, no new Ordinance may be introduced for 12 months. Meanwhile there will be no firm legal control over existing motels, or to prevent additional ones being established.

THEREFORE: The Board of Directors of the CARMEL CITIZENS COMMITTEE RECOMMENDS A "YES" VOTE ON ORDINANCE No. 156, MEASURE No. 1 ON THE APRIL 9TH BALLOT.

Keller Named Business Manager At Circle Theatre

At a specially called meeting of the Board of Governors of the Community Theatre of Monterey Peninsula, held in the theatre's Sunset Center headquarters, President Wilfred Scholefield announced the engagement of Michael Keller as business manager for the organization's widely varied program, including general management of the Circle Theatre, membership expansion and liaison with cultural groups of the area.

Mr. Keller is a well known Peninsula theatre director and actor and only recently signed a contract for his second character role in an Elvis Presley movie.

PWP Meeting Thursday

Problem - solving through self-hypnosis will be explored by members of Parents Without Partners at the group's general meeting on Thursday, March 28, at 8:00 p.m. in the Monterey Youth Center, El Estero Park.

Dr. Peter H. C. Mutke, Carmel physician and surgeon, is scheduled to lead this discussion of the controversial hypnotherapy approach to certain physical and psychological problems.

The meeting also will mark an anniversary for the local PWP chapter which held its first organizational meeting in the Monterey Public Library just a year ago. It received its charter from the international organization several months later.

Hester Schoeninger

Friday mornings. As an outgrowth of this, Sunset Auditorium was built.

She served on the Carmel school board, helped in the planning of Sunset School and led the successful fight by Carmelites for a Carmel high school and for the unified school district, established in 1939. Previous to that time Carmel students attended high school in Monterey.

Early member and former director of the Carmel Music Society, she was a charter member and early president of the Carmel Woman's Club. She was president of both the Peninsula chapter of the League of Women Voters and the Women's Democratic Club.

She helped start the carol singing tradition around the decorated community tree at Ocean and Junipero Streets. Her husband, Mr. Joseph Schoeninger, who died in 1960, was one of the many Santas who through the years rode down the hill in Bettie Greene's donkey cart.

A native of Burlington, Iowa, she and her husband had lived here since 1925. They had a home at Scenic Drive and Stewart Way. She is survived by daughters, Miss Hester Schoeninger of Monterey and Mrs. Alex Corazzo of Chesterton, Indiana.

The Monterey County Symphony Association was suggested as a way to honor her memory.

1968 Carmel Bach Festival

Emphasis in this year's Carmel Bach Festival is on instrumental music according to the schedule and program of the 31st Annual Festival now in circulation.

Cantatas and outstanding vocal works are also included and one of the high points of the Festival will be the performance on both Sunday afternoons, July 21 and 28, of Johann Sebastian Bach's impressive B Minor Mass in Sunset Auditorium.

An orchestral version of J. S. Bach's Art of the Fugue and the world premier of Le Carnival des Prescieuses—a concert of French music of 1600 will be outstanding features of the Festival. The concert at the Carmel Mission Basilica will consist of Baroque music of New Spain. Opening the Festival on Friday, July 19 and repeated on Friday the 26th, a concert of Bach and Mozart will include J. S. Bach's Cantata No. 69, Concerto for two violins, in D minor and Mass K. 427, in C minor by W. A. Mozart.

Other concerts feature concertos for trumpet and timpani (Altenburg); Harpsichord and piano (C.P.E. Bach); cello (Boccherini; piano (Mozart) and the J. S. Bach Brandenburg Concerto No. 5 for flute, violin and harpsichord. Joseph Haydn's Symphony No. 97, in C major is programmed for Saturday, July 20 and repeated July 27.

The daytime Festival programs consisting of recitals and lectures will be given as usual at the Parish Hall, All Saints' Episcopal Church in Carmel. Two organ recitals will be given, one at the Community Church in Carmel Valley and one at the Bethlehem Lutheran Church in Monterey.

The entire program is under the baton of Sandor Salgo now in his thirteenth year as Conductor and Music Director.

For brochures and ticket information please write: Carmel Bach Festival, Box 503, Carmel, California 93921 and enclose a self-addressed envelope.

Hall of Fame

George Hattie who now lives at Carmel Hacienda with his lovely wife Mary Ann left Halifax many years ago for California but apparently he is still remembered there.

In the Halifax - Mail Starr Newspaper dated March 6th, J. E. "Gee" Ahern's column "Nova Scotia Sports Hall Of Fame" mentions George in glowing terms. Quoting from the column we read that his feats on the track were numerous and "George was also one of the best basketball and rugby players in the Maritimes. His work with the Redmen, as the Wanderers' players were known, helped the club to win the Maritime basketball title in 1920-1921" — "there was a time when his football playing nearly ended his participation in all sports.

In a game against Dalhousie University George suffered a concussion that was considered dangerous enough to worry his parents for several weeks. But George's splendid physical condition enabled him to pull through and he was back in his old form when spring arrived. George was best in the 100 yards dash and he won in most of the major meets in the Maritimes.

A product of early YMCA training, George was of those rare athletes with no always "I must win" but considered taking part in sports for the sake of recreation.

"George Hattie's name may not be familiar to current sport followers but they would have liked him had they been around when he was starring more than 40 years ago."

Leonard Pennario Is Superb In Sunset Theatre Concert

by Rachel Morton, formerly critic of the Long Beach Independent-Press Telegram

It is doubtful in my mind if the Sunset Auditorium in Carmel has ever resounded with greater enthusiasm of bravos and cheers (even a standing tribute) than those which greeted pianist Leonard Pennario after his superb performance of Rachmaninoff's Piano Concerto No. 2 with the Monterey County Symphony Orchestra, with Jan de Jong conducting, Tuesday night.

So insistent and prolonged was the ovation that, after four recalls, generously shared with conductor and orchestra, Pennario graciously played two encores: a sonata in C Major by Scarlatti and a scherzo in B flat minor by Chopin — the latter in itself, a tour de force after playing the tremendous concerto.

Pennario is not only a brilliant technician and a virtuoso performer, he is also a poet who brings the heart of the music to the heart of the listener. This is a rare combination indeed and the audience was loudly articulate in its acknowledgement of the fact.

After an exciting opening of the concerto, Pennario receded the tempo in a deliberate anticipation of the beautiful warmth of the next passages, music which glowed under his touch.

Then came anvil - like strokes from the piano as the music surged and splashed like a gigantic surf.

Lingering lovingly over the brooding music of the second movement, Pennario reached deep down to the heart-break that only the music of Rachmaninoff can evoke. (I am not ashamed that there were tears in my eyes.)

The fireworks began with the third movement — Pennario's fingers, flying over the keys — chiselled out cleanly the passionate music. How brilliant and how facile were the rippling runs and trills and how noble were the crashing chords of the tremendous finale, achieved magnificently by both soloist and orchestra. (It was disturbing and most unprofessional, during the solo part, to see the concert-master imitating soundlessly the fleet runs of the pianist on his violin.)

The program opened with a sprightly performance of the overture to "Semiramide" by Rossini, music akin to the "Barber of Seville" by the same composer. The brass quartet left something to be desired.

An "Elegy for String Orchestra" by Carter promised much but realized little. Especially anemic was the ending.

A splendid performance was given "The Firebird" by Stravinsky. Conductor de Jong guided his musicians with insight and authority through the lugubrious, ominous introduction, the screeching and fluttering of the Firebird, the crash and wild orgy of the Infernal Dance, and on to the lovely Berceuse, so gentle and soothing.

The grand finale was joyously reached with the clanging of bells — reminiscent of the great bells of Kiev.

Sierra Club Meeting

Members of the Sierra Club have just received annual ballots for election of five directors. The ballot also contains six proposals for amending the club bylaws. The proposals which in effect are initiative measures involved considerable complexities. Because of this the Ventana Chapter has scheduled a special meeting for Thursday, March 28 at Carmel High School music room at 7:30.

All members are urged to hold their voting pending discussion and clarification at this meeting. Rudd Crawford, chapter chairman, will preside and members of the executive committee and others familiar with the proposals and with the internal problems of the club will present information and answer questions.

Candidates' Hour

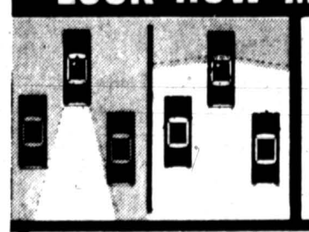

Last Saturday Carmel Radio Station KRML, in cooperation with the Carmel Pine Cone, hosted a "Meet the Candidates Hour" which was broadcast from the City Hall chambers. The show will be rebroadcast at 2 p.m., Friday, April 6 for those who missed the live production.

Each candidate was given five minutes to express his views and present his platform for election.

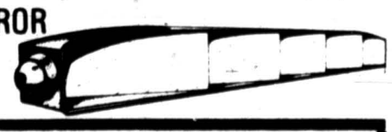

On April 4 the Carmel Citizens' Committee will hold their "Candidates' Night" at Sunset Theatre.

The Pine Cone encourages everyone to attend the Citizens' Committee meeting on April 4 and to listen to KRML for the rebroadcast of "Meet the Candidates Hour" on April 6.
